

HUNGER PRIORITIZATION FEEDING OURSELVES - WHAT DO I DESERVE?

29 October 2014 - 6:30 to 10:30pm, in Coorabel

What is a "hunger?" We all know the familiar rumbling in our stomachs – a sign that it is time to eat. We need the nourishment and fuel and the added treat of something savory.

We also have what might be loosely called "soul hungers;" those things that nourish not only our bodies, but our hearts, minds, and spirits. Within the Twisted Hairs Path, a Lineage that is thousands of years old, we have guidelines to learn how to prioritize our hungers first - before work and other needs in our lives... Many of us have a strong "work ethic." And the idea of putting what "feeds us" first is nearly unfathomable to our minds. "How will anything else get done? My life will be a mess." Interestingly enough, there is a bit of "magick" at work when we prioritize our desires – everything else unfolds with ease, good timing, and there is no lack of care in our physical worlds... How can that be? Well, the proof is in the pudding, isn't it?

Join us for a 4 hour, introductory, interactive gathering to explore what our "soul hungers" might be and a unique way to prioritize them. This gathering will be led by Razel Wolf, a ceremonialist and teacher with 25 years of study in this Lineage tradition.

Participation in this event will require some prior free-thinking and dreaming. If you choose to register, you will receive guidelines for this preparation.

We welcome you to take a step to begin identifying, prioritizing, and fulfilling your hungers in your life.
